25 THE CLERK: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: The courtroom deputy will please record
2 the verdict.

3 Folks, let me thank you for having performed your
4 civic duty and your contribution to our system of justice. You
5 were a very attentative, very conscientious jury. These types
6 of cases are not easy to sit on where you've got a lot of 7 facts, numbers, details.

8 But I didn't see any looks of frustration, all of you
9 were fully engaged, and that's all we can ask for.

10 And, Troy, this will conclude their service?

11 THE CLERK: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Okay. This is going to conclude your jury
13 service. We will need to collect your juror badges. So if you
14 would just pass those down front, and if you could put those
15 there on the rail, I would appreciate it.

16 I have certificates of appreciation for each of you.
17 I'm going to give these to Mr. Catello, and he can provide
18 those to you.

19 Under federal law, having served on this jury you are 20 now exempt from further federal jury service for a period of 21 two years. Now that has no affect if they need you in State
22 Court for jury service, we don't have any control over that.

23 But it was a pleasure to work with each of you, and I
24 hope all of you have a very happy Thanksgiving.

25 You are hereby discharged, you are now free to discuss

1 this case with anyone if you so desire. You also have the
2 right of privacy, which means that you don't have to talk about
3 the case unless you want to do so.

4 So with that, have a great day, have a great
5 Thanksgiving, and we look forward to seeing you again.

6 [Jury enters the courtroom].

7 THE COURT: Marc M. Harris, the jury having found you
8 guilty of Counts 1, 2, 3, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18,
9 19, 20, 21, and 22, you are hereby adjudged guilty of each of 10 those counts.

11 The jury having found you not guilty of Counts 4, 5,
12 6, 7, 8, 9, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, and 30, the Court
13 adjudges you not guilty of those counts.

14 You are hereby remanded to the custody of the U.S.
15 Marshal Service to be held without bond pending sentence, which 16 will be deferred until --

17 THE CLERK: February 6th, Your Honor, 2004, at 3:00
18 p.m.

19 THE COURT: The Court will order a presentence
20 investigative report returnable within the time parameters set
21 forth in the local rules.

22 Are there any other matters to come before the Court
23 before we recess these proceedings?

24 MR. FERNANDEZ: Two matters, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 MR. FERNANDEZ: First, may we have a copy of the
2 verdict form?

3 THE COURT: Absolutely. I was going to suggest that
4 Troy make a copy for each party.

5 MR. FERNANDEZ: And number two, would Your Honor
6 request the Marshals to send Mr. Harris back to Miami so that
7 we can work on the -- obviously the PSI in this matter.

8 THE COURT: Well, I would assume that he's going to be
9 sent back down to the Federal Detention Center.

10 THE MARSHAL: Your Honor, it's normally the case that
11 they're housed in Broward County Jail if it is a Broward case
12 until such time as sentencing, as long as there's a facility
13 there. Unless there's some other --

14 MR. FERNANDEZ: That's the point, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay. I was not aware.

16 MR. FERNANDEZ: Well, it's not a firm thing. My last
17 conversation with it, they weren't going to keep anybody there
18 anymore for different reasons, but it changes every day.

19 THE COURT: You know, it's always been my practice to 20 try to accommodate people. However, I don't like to interfere
21 with another branch of government unless it involves the
22 constitutional rights of the defendant who has a case pending
23 before me.

24 And I recognize that it would be easier for you as his
25 lawyer if he's down in Miami closer to you.

1 MR. FERNANDEZ: It's not for my benefit, Your Honor,
2 but I know for a fact that in Broward County they don't allow
3 you to have the documentation that he had, you know, this case
4 we have ten boxes of documents that he kept at FDC.

5 Over here, they don't allow anything, I mean that's --
6 So it's not just my --

7 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask the Marshal if he 8 can address access to materials that the defendant needs with 9 respect to his legal case.

10 THE MARSHAL: Your Honor, I'm not familiar with 11 whatever Broward County Jail's procedures are, that's what they
12 are. That's how the Marshal's Service works, because there's 13 still detainees at this point that are in Broward County Jail.

14 I'm not familiar with Broward County Jail's procedure
15 regarding the availability to evidence.

16 MR. FERNANDEZ: And if I may add, they also don't have
17 any federal library of any moment, which they do at FDC.
18 Mr. Harris has been very helpful in, you know, in doing
19 research and things of that nature.

20 So they don't have anything there about the Sentencing
21 Guidelines. They don't have anything, it's just a county
22 facility that lacks all the necessary things of a federal 23 prisoner.

24 That they hold them during the trial makes sense
25 because they don't have to go back and forth. But for a

1 protracted period of time, it's just a waste. And it's really
2 depriving him of his ability to prepare.

3 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to grant your
4 request. I'm going to order the defendant transferred back to 5 Miami. It just makes more sense. Sentencing is not until 6 February.

7 Anything further?

8 MR. FERNANDEZ: No, Your Honor. Thank you very much.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
